

Costume Guide SINBAD THE SAILOR – Junior and Senior Chorus

All costumes should be named and kept on the rails. Please treat the costumes with care as some are borrowed and others are made for 8 performances only and will not last if treated badly.

You must be in the correct costume in order to go on stage in front of an audience and this includes hair, makeup and shoes. Do not go on stage half dressed.

Once in costume and makeup you cannot leave your dressing room until the show starts, and only then when you are called and instructed to do so by your chaperone. Also, you cannot eat or drink in costume. Please bring a dressing gown or robe to wear when not in costume and waiting for your next change and over your costume when waiting to be called.
